Endorsement . . .

By Hal Longley

THOSE who really know pedigrees will readily agree that this catalog contains some of the most royally bred Shorthorn cattle that have been offered in years. A study of Ralph Taylor's methods in building up his herd to its present high state is very interesting and should prove instructive to other breeders. In selecting the animals that are to be permanent members of his herd, he is never unmindful of the fact that they must display the most correct beef type as well as the quality and character that should go along with a true beef animal. Of utmost importance to him, also, is the milking ability of each female, his theory being that the success of the breed is dependant on the ability of farmers to take a two-way profit. When he has satisfied himself as to these requirements, he launches a thorough search into the ancestry of the animal in order to obtain assurance that the offspring will prove true to its forbears. He does not want a good animal with a poor pedigree nor a good pedigree with a poor animal.

This catalog represents a sale offering built through such constructive effort. If you will study the pedigrees you cannot fail to be impressed. And if you will come to the sale, you will be rewarded by an opportunity to buy splendid individuals that will prove highly profitable.—Hal Longley of The Shorthorn World.

A welcome always awaits you at Imperial View Farms.

WE again invite you to Imperial View for our annual sale of Shorthorn cattle and to see our cattle on pasture. We feel that this is the strongest offering we have ever made, not alone in the individual merit of the animals but in the strength of the pedigrees and the number of females that will return quick profits to their owners. During the past four years we have been gradually increasing the size of our breeding herd in order to make possible an Annual Production Sale and we take particular pride in the fact that all of the younger cattle in this sale are animals of our own breeding and the ten good cows have calves at foot by Dreadnaught Impression, our senior stock bull. It is a source of great pleasure to have progressed to the point where we can present our strongest sale offering and still have left in our own breeding herd 40 of the choicest breeding females we ever owned, all of them safe in calf to two of the best herd bulls ever used on our farm.

The present sale offering contains the last heifers by Sensation Again that we intend to offer. They are a beautiful lot and all who have bought them in former sales agree with us that they grow into wonderfully valuable breeding females. The calves by Dreadnaught Impression in this sale and on our farm, are convincing proof that he is an outstanding sire. We will be particularly pleased to exhibit our junior herd bull, Imperial Masterpiece, on sale day. Although we gain much pleasure out of our cattle, the Imperial View Herd is in no sense a "hobby herd" and we have adhered to a type that we feel will always be consistently profitable to Corn Belt farmers. A cordial invitation is extended to our friends and admirers of Shorthorns to be with us on sale day.

RALPH J. TAYLOR.

Dreadnaught Impression

DREADNAUGHT IMPRESSION—Is our senior Stock bull and his first crop of calves convince us that he is the greatest sire ever used at Imperial View Farms. He is a son of the many times grand champion, Dreadnaught Salute. Every calf so far has been of rich color, ideal type and an easy feeder. Two of his calves, a bull and a heifer of real show ring conformation are pictured in this catalog and will sell in the sale and ten cows are selling with outstanding calves at foot sired by him.

IMPERIAL MAID and Heifer Calf by Sensation Again. A production of Imperial View Farms, sold in our last sale to Mr. Roy Arnold, Sterling, Ill. Mr. Arnold recently told me she was one of the most pleasing females in his herd. This sale will afford many such attractions with calves at foot by Sensation Again or carrying his service.

THOSE who have doubted that there is such a thing as a cow that will produce both Beef and Milk will be absolutely convinced when they see the ten great cows that sell with calves at foot in this sale. And are they beautifully bred? Well,—just start with the pedigree shown below and read all the way through this catalog.

Imperial Rosemary 2d 1888256—Is a beautiful type and comes from most dependable breeding. Her dam is the mother of the present herd sire in the M. E. Jones & Sons' Herd. In our 1936 sale, her 10 months old daughter topped the open heifer class, going to Mr. Meacham's Koreandale Herd in Kentucky. We think this is probably her best calf. Although she is only a five year old cow, she has proven to be a great breeder for us.
